Finance: Redacted but the club bills are paid and we are looking fairly good financially.

Federation News: The club purchased 92 raffle tickets from the Federation as required by the Federation by laws. Contact Brian Adams to purchase these raffle tickets.

Marketing (Tim): Nothing new.

Old Business:

RCBC Tournament: Green Valley Results: 1st Place: Tim McSorley using a Creature Bait and 10" Worm. 2nd Place: Dave McCoy using a Brush Hog. 3rd Place: Bobby McKinney using a Swim Bait. Big Bass 5.03: Ben Bukacek using a Sexy Shad Crank Bait.

Additional RCBC Tournament to replace weather cancellation of Pom De Terre tournament: After much discussion between club members and the TDs, the decision is that there will be no makeup tournament this year.

Discussion on next year's RCBC Open: Dan Radebaugh presented an option to replace the one RCBC Open tournament with a RCBC Series (See Attached). This motion was discussed and the decision of the club was to move forward with the Series.

New Scales: The club authorized the TDs to purchase six new scales. David Dust (TD) and Dave Greer (Treasurer) will coordinate the purchase.

New Business:

The next RCBC meeting on will be held at the Okoboji tournament. Beginning in October all future meetings will be held at Famous Dave's BBQ in Bellevue: 2015 Pratt Ave. Just off of Cornhusker just west of the Kennedy Express way.

RCBC Tournament Lakes for 2020: The following lakes have been nominated by the club for consideration: Okoboji, Grand, 3 Mile, 12 Mile, Brushy Creek, Glazier Lakes, Green Valley, LaCross, Paho, Little River, and Rathburn. Club Officers will meet on 26 August to finalize the 2020 lakes. Members will then be polled concerning dates and their individual availability.
